

MEET YOUR ST. PHILIP PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Any member of the council is available and open to the sharing of your feedback and suggestions as they relate to the parish. Please contact them in person or through personal contact information which can be provided by the parish office.

Sandy Bosrock has been a parishioner of St. Philip all of her life. She considers St. Philip more than just a church; it's her home away from home. Sandy has two brothers, two nephews, one niece and 8 Great nieces. She has been on the Council for many years as well as having participated in RCIA, CCW, and she is an EMHC. Sandy retired from Bronson Battle Creek after 47 years of employment, having started there when it was Leila Hospital. She now spends time volunteering at Marian Burch, the Food Pantry and has joined Altrusa. She has been a Cereal City Blue Star MOMMAS associate for 3 years. Normal Mass: 4:30 pm

---

Andrea Boughton has been a parishioner of St. Philip since 2003. She is involved in many aspects of the church – 2nd grade catechist; EMHC, sacristan, and co-editor of the new Our Catholic Community newsletter. She was also editor of the former St. Philip Spirit newsletter. She joined the Parish Council in 2013 and served six years on the Bishop's Pastoral Council. Andrea works at the Hart, Dole, Inouye Federal Center as an Operations Lead. She also farms with her family southeast of Battle Creek. She is interested in building and enriching our parish community through activities and our many wonderful groups. Normal Mass: 7:00 and 9:00 am

---

Troy Fuller has been a parishioner since 1997; although, he only converted to the Catholic Faith in 2016. Troy is the father of twins Trevor and Tyler, who were altar servers for many years before graduating from St. Philip HS in 2018, and his wife Michelle works at St. Philip HS. Troy is a new member to the Parish Council this year, and has a special interest in helping new and returning Catholics to grow in their faith and participation in parish life. He is an EMHC, and has chaperoned our youth to Catholic Heart Work Camp and National Catholic Youth Conference. Troy is employed as a research scientist at Zoetis, an animal health pharmaceutical company in Kalamazoo. Normal Mass: 9:00 am

---

Todd Greenman has served as a member of the Parish Council for many years and was a past Chair of the Council. He also serves as a Eucharistic Minister (EMHC). Todd has been a parishioner his entire life, is a graduate of St. Philip Catholic Central High School, and is married to Caroline, a teacher at St. Joseph Elementary School. They have three daughters and one son who are fourth generation graduates of St. Philip. Todd is employed at the VA Medical Center as the Chief, Community and Volunteer Service. He is interested in increasing parishioner involvement in volunteering with the many groups St. Philip has to offer. Normal Mass: 4:30 pm

---

Patrick Hirzel, a cradle Catholic, is originally from Detroit, and has been a parishioner since 1974. In 1976, he married Catherine Mueller, the St. Philip Elementary School second grade teacher. They have two sons, Kevin and Tim, both of whom are lawyers and graduates of St. Phillip HS and Univ. of Michigan. Patrick is a practicing attorney. He has been on the Parish Council for 27 years and has been an EMHC since Eucharistic Ministers were first appointed at St. Philip. He has been the editor of the Spiritual Formation bulletin inserts for 12 years and is a member of the Tri-Parish Pro-Life Ministry. He is particularly interested in the interior spiritual life of parishioners. Normal Mass: 4:30 pm and daily

BJ Konkle has been celebrating Mass at St. Philip since 2014. He converted to the Catholic Faith in 2015 before marrying his wife, Stacey, in 2016 at St. Philip. Father John celebrated their wedding ceremony as well as baptized their son, Kellen. BJ and Stacey both usher at 11:30 Mass on Sundays, often assisted by their son. He and his family live in Marshall, and he currently works as a materials planner at Tenneco in Marshall. BJ is new to the Pastoral Council this year. Normal Mass: 11:30 am

Randi May is new to the Parish Council. Raised as a Protestant, she converted to Catholicism in 1982 after being engaged to Tim. They attended St. Jerome's where they raised their two boys. In 2000 they became parishioners at St. Philip, and Tim eventually became the principal at SPCC, a job he loved, until his untimely passing in 2014. After 43 years in education as a teacher, counselor, and college admissions advisor, she now devotes her time to taking care of her four grandchildren, traveling, and taking care of people in need. She enjoys helping with church holiday decorations, funeral luncheons, the Christmas baskets and is an EMHC. The people of the church and schools proved to be her "rock" when Tim died, and now she is glad to help anyone in any situation. Normal Mass: 11:30 am

Tony Rinaldo is an Italian American entrepreneur who was a fixture of the downtown Battle Creek business community until his retirement in 2009. He has been a parishioner since 1970. He was a founding member of the Pastoral Council and has served in nearly every capacity. Both of his sons are graduates of St. Philip Catholic Central and his youngest grandson is a student at St. Joseph. He hopes to focus on bringing in new parishioners to the church as well as bringing former parishioners back to the community. Normal Mass: 4:30 pm

Mary Sanford has been a lifelong member of St. Philip and is a graduate of St. Philip High School, KCC and the University of Michigan School of Nursing. She is employed at Bronson Battle Creek as a nurse case manager. Mary is married to Randy, and they have two grown children and one grandchild. She has been on Pastoral Council for 5 years, and is an EMHC and past adult altar server. She is involved with CCW and has been involved in various other parish activities over the years including Sunday Supper crew. She is especially interested in helping parishioners become more involved in volunteering with the many groups at St. Philip. Normal Mass: 9:00 am

Elizabeth Sweeney and her husband Patrick have been parishioners since 1994. Their children were all attendees of Battle Creek Area Catholic schools. Elizabeth taught High School and Middle School for 15 years, and she was on the Battle Creek Community Foundation Board from 1997 to 2008. She is a member of the choir and cantor, and joined the Pastoral Council in 2018. Elizabeth's hope for our parish is to encourage a welcoming nature. Normal Mass: Whenever the choir is singing

Ed Zenterra is a graduate of the University of Michigan, with a passion for music. He retired after teaching 40 years of instrumental music (32 at Kellogg Community College) and performing 29 years with the Brass Band of Battle Creek. In addition, he performed for 14 years with the Battle Creek Symphony and conducted Post Band summer concerts for 16 years. Ed is married to Ruth, a retired RN from Battle Creek Health Systems, and they have 5 children and 9 grandchildren. He has often shared his talent with the parish through special music and was a strong supporter of the BCACS band program. Ed has been a member of the Parish Council and Restoration Committee for 5 years. Normal Mass: 9:00 am

Clergy

Fr. John Fleckenstein
Fr. Raj J. Nathan

Fr. Rob Johansen
Deacon Al Bell